Winning students

The Grand Ballroom at Burswood saw more than 720 guests enjoy a presentation dinner complemented by Goundrey Wines as part of the eighth annual West Australian Training Excellence Awards. Student winners received a $7000 study grant, as well as a trip to Sydney in November to compete in the national competition. The director general of the Department of Training, Ian Hill, Minister for Training John Kobelke and chairman of the State Training Board Marli Wallace all enjoyed the chance to recognise and celebrate our high standard of training excellence thanks to this popular event.

TRAINING AWARDS: Fiona Barrett, Megan Ward and Renae Heron
